Springfield, Ill., Oct. 22.—General Alfred Orendorf, aged 83, president of the International Bank & Trust company, of Vinita, Okla., died here today. General Orendorf was one of the most prominent men in the state of Illinois. He had long been recognized as one of the most influential democrats in his home state, and was one of the foremost capitalists of Springfield, being identified with several banks and a number of the large insurance companies, among them being the Franklin Life and the Illinois Life Insurance Companies. At the time of his death General Orendorf was president of the Illinois State Historical society and of the Springfield election commission. He served as

The arrangements for the funeral have not been announced yet, but it is likely they will be held Sunday.

From one of our fellow citizens, Judge Gill, who has known General Orendorf from his boyhood, we learn: That General Orendorf stood in the foremost ranks of the many able citizens of Illinois, not only in the democratic party, in whose councils he ranked high, and which honored him with many distinctions, but in the citizenship of the state. He stood for advancement and improvement and promoted all wise policies to these ends. He was for many years one of the leaders in many civic societies, such captain in the 133rd Illinois Infantry in the Civil war and was promoted to the rank of major-general.

In 1903 with J. W. Orr and others, the deceased went to Vinita and organized the International Bank & Trust company, and took $10,000 of the capital stock of that bank, and was elected president, which position he retained until his death.

Bright's disease is assigned as the direct cause of the general's death, although he has been in ill health since the death of his wife about a year ago, resulting from heart failure, brought on by fright, caused by the fall of a tree against the house, during a severe wind storm.

The deceased leaves two daughters, Misses Edna and Agnes, and a son John Orendorf, who is now at Joplin, Mo.

COURT IS HEARING SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Smith Suit Against Katy For Damages
Before District on Second Trial
First Trial Favored Plaintiff.

An interesting case is being heard in the district court here today. It is the suit of W. M. M. Smith, a crippled colored boy, against the M., K. & T. railway for $1,000 damages, resulting from the action of Conductor Green in putting the boy off a Katy passenger train near the station of Chouteau, after a fellow passenger had offered to pay his fare. The plaintiff contends that he had secured a position as cook for a working crew on the Katy, and had been given a ticket to the point, where he was to work. When at another station, he told the conductor that he had some work clothes at his home, a short distance from the station, and was told that he would have time to get them, but while he was gone after the clothes, the train pulled out and left him. He reported to the agent, who instructed him to take the next train and explain the situation to the conductor or auditor, and that they would carry him. This he did with the result that the conductor refused to let him ride, and it is said refused to accept payment of his fare by another, and the boy was put off the train on a dark night. For this the boy seeks damages, in the amount, of $1,000.

The case was first tried in January, 1904, before Judge Gill, in the old territorial court for the northern district. The jury at that time found a verdict for the plaintiff and gave him a judgment for $800. The railroad company appealed to the United States court of appeals for the Indian Territory and the decision of the lower court was affirmed. The railroad attorneys then appealed to the United States circuit court of appeals for the eighth circuit, and in a decision, handed down at St. Paul, the decision of the two lower courts was reversed and the case remanded for new trial. In the meantime Oklahoma became a state and the case was brought up for hearing at this term of the district court.

It is thought the case will be finished and given to the jury some time this afternoon. Attorneys Preston Davis and W. P. Thompson are representing the plaintiff.

BOOZE DEALERS SECURE ANOTHER INJUNCTION

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 22.—Another injunction suit to test the right of the state to seize consignments of liquor sent into the state subject to "shipper's order," was filed yesterday in the federal court by Joseph Filler, a wholesale liquor dealer of St. Louis, Mo., against Dispensary Superintendent S. W. Stone, Enforcement Officers Vaughn, Fenton, Murdock and Cain; Enforcement Attorney John M. Hays, and Justices of the Peace W. H. Sewick, Edward D. Oldfield and J. J. Beall of Oklahoma City.

Filler asks that the enforcement officers be enjoined from making or directing any seizures of consignments shipped by the plaintiff before they reach the consignee, and that the justices of the peace be enjoined from issuing search and seizure warrants. A temporary restraining order was issued by Judge Cotteral.

BUSY SESSION OF COMMERCIAL CLUB

Commercial Club Will Try to Ascertain And Obviate Causes of Delay On Insane Asylum Work.

One of the most interesting and busiest sessions in the history of the organization was held last night by the Commercial Club. There was not a large attendance, but those present were fully imbued with the spirit of town building in Vinita, and the aim of the club was greatly advanced.

The matter of the delay in the building of the hospital for the insane at this place, was one of the most interesting topics brought up at this meeting and a committee, composed of Seymour Riddle, chairman, Judge Joseph A. Gill and W. B. Depue was appointed to take up the matter with the board of asylum control, of which Robert Dunlop, of Newkirk, is chairman, and if possible get the work started at once. The architect at Muskogee, who made the plans has reported that the plans are now in the board's hands, awaiting their recommendation. They will then be submitted to the board of public affairs and bids for the construction will be asked.

The committee appointed to investigate the gas conditions reported as stated in yesterday's Chieftain.

There will be a box supper tomorrow night at the Dupree school house northwest of town. A wagon will leave the Congregational church at 7:30, to accommodate those who wish to attend.

TWO ICE COMPANIES MUST CORRECT WEIGHTS

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 22.—The corporation commission late last evening issued two orders against ice companies. The Marietta and Pauls Valley ice company are ordered to place standard gauge scales on their wagons and to weigh ice for customers. The order also directs the companies not to discriminate in prices charged to consumers. The Marietta company is warned against refusing to sell ice to consumers just because they kicked on the service. The anti-trust law provisions are clearly outlined in the orders to the companies.

SERIOUS TROUBLE AVERTED BY TIMELY INTERFERENCE

Sapulpa, Okla., Oct. 22.—What might have been a serious affair was prevented in time by friends of both parties when W. E. McDaniels and ex-Sheriff Henry King met on the street. It was after court had adjourned when McDaniels had testified concerning graft charges against King now being tried. They passed each other and McDaniels spoke to King. The latter resented it and it is said went after his gun. Others standing by interfered and no further demonstration followed.

ASK FOR REDEPOSIT OF GUARANTY FUND

Pass Resolutions Pointing Out the Amendment Desired to the Present Bank Guaranty Law.

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 22.—The east section of the State Bankers' Association, which met in semi-annual meeting in this city yesterday, after condemning the guarantee deposit law as exemplified in the recent failure of the Columbia Bank and Trust company of Oklahoma City, demanded that Oklahoma banking laws undergo radical amendments.

The amendments wanted were embodied in a series of four resolutions, as follows:

First—That the state banking board be abolished and that the management and control of the guarantee fund be placed in the hands of the state bank commissioner.

Second—That the guarantee fund be redeposited with the banks from which it originated without interest.

Third—That the state bear the expense of maintaining and operating the guarantee fund.

Fourth—That upon the liquidation of any bank that this bank shall take over as an asset 90 per cent of the unused portion of the guarantee fund contributed by this bank. The east section of the State Bankers' Association comprises the Third congressional district within the confines of which are located some of the largest banks in the state, which were largely represented at the meeting today.

The meeting was followed by a banquet at the Brady hotel last night.

MAN---

if you are built in the regular way you won't stand half the chance of missing a fit here as you would at the "to-order" tailor.

We are speaking of our KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHES at $18, $20, $22.50 and $25—clothing that we don't believe could be improved upon as to fitting qualities—clothes that are just as different from the ordinary run of ready-to-wear clothes in fit and looks as an ordinary $1.50 split-leather shoe is from a $6.00 patent leather.

These same KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHES are being sold by the best clothing shops and department stores in every metropolitan city in the country and are being worn by men who can afford to patronize the best custom tailors in the land, but who wear KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHES solely out of preference; because he can not only get a perfect fit but can get a style that but a very few of the "to-order" tailors can touch with their individual patterns.
